World's Biggest Ship Due This Morning After Five Days at Sea.

The White Star Liner Majestic, the worlds largest ship, is due this morning ording to wireless reports yesterday commander, Commodore Sir Bertram Hayes, who said she was making an extraordinarily fast passage. eaving Cherbourg last Wednesday and the English coast early Thursday, the reports yesterday indicated the ship Nantucket Lightship early last night and would have a record voyage of five days at sea.

A Sunday night concert was held oard the Majestic. Capt. Gipsy Pat Smith, Scotch evangelist, addressed a large audience, including many society and theatrical people and gave a history of his life, entitled "From Gipsy Tent to S PM. Gospel Platform."

SILENCE ON LINER RACING HERE WITH SICK CHILD

Even Ship's Bells Cut Out So as Not to Disturb Patient.

Thomas H. McConnell, Jr., ten months old, whose father, Major McConnell, is also nia a Ford representative in Buenos Aires, created a zone of silence aboard the inson liner American Legion, in yes-Munson liner American Legion, in yesterday from South American ports, on the last six days of her trip. He was ill with pneumonia, and the ship's surgeon, Dr. Louis Weir, decided that the open air and a muted environment would help much in curing the little boy, so a miniature hospital was rigged on the port side of the main deck and passengers and crew were asked to make as little noise as possible, and the ship's bells were cut out and the whistle blown only when necessary.

only when hecessary.

The liner was run thereafter at top speed to get the little patient to port swiftly so he might be sent to hospital for special treatment. He seemed to be somewhat better when the American Leglon docked in Hoboken yesterday morning and was taken off immediately and rushed to St. Luke's Hospital in an amed to St. Luke's Hospital in an ambulance that had been summoned by the aradio. It is said he has a fine chance to recover, thanks to the attention of the ship's surgeon, the nurse and the psychological sympathy of the entire

GARLAND LINE DENIES INTERCOAST SHIP PLAN

Vice-President Says Report

Record time was made recently in shipping 5,000 bales of raw silk, which arrived at Seattle on the atcamship President Jefferson of the Admiral Line, to New York, despite the rail troubles which have interfered somewhat with fast service. The shipment arrived in 25 hours and 16 minutes, as a sainst the ordinary 95 hours, the schedule freight time for the distance. The shipment traveled over the Chicago and Northwestern, Michigan Central and New/York Central lines.

W. M. Campion, vice-president of the Garland Steamship Company, yesterday denied the report his company will enter the intercoastal trade and operate four steamships. Mr. Campion, seen at his office at 511 Fifth avenue, said there has been no intention by the company to undertake this work and the information published recently did not come from the company, is in Europe, Mr. Campion said, and has issued no orders nor taken any steps toward the intercoastal trade route.
